

Short North Foundation Readies for 2008

COLUMBUS, OH (December XX, 2007) – Several items were announced at the Short North Neighborhood Foundation’s annual meeting November 12 at Skully’s Music-Diner. Firstly, the foundation will now be known as the Short North Foundation. The foundation’s trustees think this new name will be easier to market.

Zoe and Jack Johnstone were awarded the Annual Community Leadership Award (please see separate announcement).

The foundation announced a partnership with WOSU Public Media whereby a one-hour documentary about the Short North will be produced and made available to the public near the end of 2008.

Additionally, the foundation elected Sandy Woolard as the Harrison West representative to the foundation’s board of trustees.
